

The background features a vibrant gradient from red at the top to blue at the bottom. Overlaid on this are two faint, stylized line drawings of children's faces. Each face is enclosed within a thought bubble shape, suggesting a focus on thoughts and feelings. The child on the left has a slightly open mouth, while the child on the right has a more neutral expression.

Explore the Tate Kids website. What activities look fun to you? You may participating in your choice of activities on the website.

(Link to website is below the project description)

Now reflect on how you feel about not going back to school this school year. Use pictures and or words.

Photograph your work of art with your smart device and share with Mr. Herring, either through his e-mail or the Ebby Halliday ES Facebook page.

Make sure to include your name and grade in your email.

Using a black marker or crayon, draw a flower in the center of your paper. Trace the outside edge of the flower similar to the picture to the right. Color in the flower using cool or warm colors, alternating each color.

Photograph your work of art with your smart device and share with Mr. Herring, either through his e-mail or the Ebby Halliday ES Facebook page.

Make sure to include your name and grade in your email.

